1   Langevin Function

We are for this problem interested in considering a system with N magnetic moments of magnitude μ, where the ith moment is oriented at some angle θ_i from the vertical. Our Hamiltonian has an external field H, but no coupling between moments.